11. Outcome:

It is rightly said, “We receive but what we give and in our hearts do Nature Live” Today 13th April 2022, Siliguri Institute of Technology NSS unit organised “The Joy of giving” program for the Sri Sri Paramamnda Jogananda Jogashram – an orphanage home at Tikia Para, Siliguri. All the faculty, staffs, NSS volunteers and students across departments participated wholeheartedly. The Faculty and staff members contributed generously to make this program a successful one. The Unit distributed rice, edible oil, salt, soyabin, wheat phenyl, new T-shirts, books and stationary items to the children of Sri Sri Paramamnda Jogananda Jogashram – an orphanage home. In the midst of Nature the program began with the opening address from Honourable Principal Dr. Mithun Chakraborty emphasising on the importance of Karma than words .Sanjay Maharaja of Sri Paramananda Jogananda Jogashram and Swami Raghavananda were present on this occasion who were felicitated by the Honourable Principal of Siliguri Institute of Technology .It was a short program where Sanjay Maharaja with his rendition of Baul Song brought serenity into the calm and quiet surrounding. The students heartily interacted with the children of the orphanage home. They served food which was also organised by NSS SIT Unit to them in our canteen. All in all it was a heart rendering program where compassion, fellow feelings and helping each other pervaded the environment as each and every one could feel the joy of giving that purifies our inner state of being.
